

Complete this pre-adoption questionnaire to determine your level of commitment and ability to care for a new pet in your household. If you answer no to any questions, then a dog or a cat may not be the best pet for you.

1. Are you willing to care for the animal throughout his or her lifetime?

Y/N
Dogs and cats can live 10-20 years.

2. Do you know how to house-train a dog or litter-box train a cat?

Y/N

3. Can you afford the cost of food, grooming, and regular veterinary care, including yearly vaccinations and check-ups?

Y/N

4. Will you see that your pets get regular daily exercise?

Y/N

5. Are you prepared to attend training classes to teach your animal basic obedience?

Y/N

6. Are you prepared to hire a trainer if your pet has behavior issues you don't know how to deal with?

Y/N

7. Will you license your animal and obey leash laws?

Y/N

8. If you move, get married, get a new job, or have kids, will you keep your animal with you?

Y/N

9. Have you considered who will care for your pet during vacations or in an emergency?

Y/N

10. Will you give your pet the love and attention when he or she needs your attention, and not just at your convenience?

Y/N

I answered "Yes" to all the questions. What next?
